

Alpha Foods Co. is a family owned and managed Texas based pizza manufacturer located in Waller, Texas. As a partner in the Texas Department of Agriculture's (TDA) Farm Fresh Network, Alpha Foods Co. has been bringing high quality local pizzas to Texas school cafeterias and to K-12 students for decades, while helping to boost the local Texas economy. Alpha Foods Co. produces delicious pizzas and calzones for students across the country and in the Lone Star State!

Today in America, October is National Pizza Month.

The first pizza wasn't made in Italy or in the USA. It was ancient Greeks who gave birth to Pizza. They used to bake flat and round large breads and topped them with veggies, potatoes, spices and olive oil. Some were folded into what is known today as the Calzone!
